8. REASON FOR GRANT REQUEST:

(eg. details of project together with numbers of those involved in the project, members and/or others, equipment, event)

We are taking 34 of our guides & 17 Senior section along with 6 leaders to an international camp @ blacklands in east Crinstead, it is a week long camp where girl guides from all over the world will get together for the chance to learn about cultures & making new friends. At this camp the girls will do day trips, loads of new activities as well as some old favourites. There is entertainment & displays. It's a great opportunity & we believe that everyone should be given the chance to go even if funds are an issue. We have a few girls that we need to pay the full amount for & we hope to help everyone with £100, we also need to get there & supply tents etc the camp costs £325 each, we have already done a hamper raffle, quiz night and plan to do a disco & sponsored walk.

(eg. details of project together with numbers of those involved in the project, members and/or others, equipment, event)

We're a group of volunteers who are restoring a 1961 wooden boat. Once finished the boat will be permanently moored in Newhaven and used for free training and sailing for the people of Newhaven and surrounding towns. Our volunteers have the highest skills, boat builders, local sailing clubs, boat surveyors, head of sailing training, head of Newhaven cadets.

Our main aim is to make boating accessible to all and upskill young people in boat woodwork.

The grant is being requested to contribute towards the boat transportation costs.

Total project cost is £7,000.

Funding would be wonderful to help buy new playground equipment for all year groups.

We would like to introduce soft balls and toys to help stimulate the environment at playtimes and make a happy/fun time to a really valuable time of a child's day. Help with social times if children had more equipment to play with.

Thank You for reading. Mrs Godden.

Due to many of our members being elderly we find it difficult to organise fund raising events, although we have raised money running a refreshment stall at this years Peacehaven Summer Fair.

Our main expenses are the hire of the Civic Centre hall (council chamber) for our monthly meeting, and the cost of speakers.
