

TELSCOMBE TOWN COUNCIL

NOTICE OF CO-OPTION OF THREE TOWN COUNCILLORS

Following an uncontested election in May 2023, Telscombe Town Council still has 2 ordinary vacancies in the Telscombe Cliffs ward which it can fill by co-option. We also have 1 casual vacancy following a Councillor resignation which can also be filled by co-option.

Telscombe Town Council invites applications from candidates who satisfy the eligibility for being a Councillor and the competencies listed in the person specification.

The Town Council is not obliged to co-opt to fill any vacancy or to select anyone from the candidates who apply.

The Council meets once every other month normally on the third Wednesday of the month. Committees also meet once every other month mostly on Wednesdays, apart from the Planning & Highways Committee which meets once every 3 weeks. If you would like to know more about the role, please contact the Town Council offices.

If you are interested in serving as a Town Councillor, please complete and return a completed application to the Town Clerk at Telscombe Civic Centre, 360 South Coast Road, Telscombe Cliffs, East Sussex, BN10 7ES or via email to stella.newman@telscombetowncouncil.gov.uk. Applications will be treated in the strictest confidence.

The closing date for applications is 5pm on Friday 14th February 2025. Candidates will be invited to speak at the Full Council meeting to be held on Wednesday 19th March 2025, after which a vote by Councillors will take place.

TELSCOMBE TOWN COUNCIL

Councillor Co-option Policy

Introduction

This Policy sets out the procedure to ensure that there is compliance with legislation and continuity of procedures in the co-option of members to Telscombe Town Council (TTC). The Co-option procedure is entirely managed by TTC and this Policy will ensure that a fair and equitable process is carried out.

The co-option of a town councillor occurs in two instances:

- When an ordinary vacancy has arisen on a Parish/Town Council after the ordinary elections held every four years,
- When a casual vacancy has arisen on a Parish/Town Council and no poll (by-election) has been called.

Ordinary Vacancy

An ordinary vacancy occurs when there are insufficient candidates to fill all the seats on a Parish/Town Council at the ordinary elections held every four years. Any candidates who were nominated are automatically elected to the Parish/Town Council and any remaining vacancies are known as 'ordinary vacancies'. Provided there are enough Parish/Town Councillors to constitute a quorum, the Parish/Town Council is able to co-opt a volunteer to fill the vacancies.

Casual Vacancy

A casual vacancy occurs when:

- A Councillor fails to make his declaration of acceptance of office at the proper time;
- A Councillor resigns;
- A Councillor dies;
- A Councillor becomes disqualified;
- A Councillor fails for six (6) months to attend meetings of a Council committee or sub-committee or to attend as a representative of the Council a meeting of an outside body.

TTC has to notify the District Council of a Casual Vacancy and then advertise the vacancy and give electors the opportunity to request an election. This occurs when ten electors notify the District Council stating that an election is requested.

If a by-election is called, a polling station will be set up by the District Council and the electors will be asked to vote for candidates who will have put themselves forward by way of nomination paper. TTC will pay the costs of the election. The electors have fourteen days (not including weekends, bank holidays and other notable days) to claim the by-election but the Electoral Officer will advise the Clerk of the closing date.

If more than one candidate is then nominated a by-election takes place but if only one candidate is put forward, they are duly elected without a ballot.

If ten residents do not request a ballot within fourteen days of the vacancy notice being posted, as advertised by the District Council, TTC is able to proceed to co-opt a volunteer.

Confirmation of Co-option

On receipt of written confirmation from the Electoral Services Office of the District Council the casual vacancy can be filled by means of Co-option. The Town Clerk will:

- Advertise the vacancy for four weeks on the Council notice boards and website;
- Advise TTC that the Co-option Policy has been instigated.

This procedure will also apply in the case of an ordinary vacancy where the Electoral Services office has confirmed that there were insufficient nominations to fill all the seats, but there are sufficient Town Councillors elected to constitute a quorum.

TTC is not obliged to fill any vacancy. Even if the Council invites applications for co-option it is not obliged to select anyone from the candidates that apply.

However, despite this it is not desirable that electors be left under-represented for a significant length of time, neither does it contribute to effective and efficient working of the Council if there are insufficient Councillors to share the workload; equitably; to provide a broad cross-section of skills and interests; or to achieve meeting quorums without difficulty.

Councillors elected by co-option are full members of TTC.

1. Eligibility of Candidates

TTC is able to consider any person to fill a vacancy provided that:-

- He/she is 18 or over
- He/she is a British Citizen, qualifying Commonwealth Citizen or a Citizen of any other member state of the European Union and at least one of the following apply:-

- He/she is an elector of the parish and continues to be an elector;
- Or has resided in the parish for the past twelve months or rented/tenanted land or other premises in the parish; or
- Or had his/her principal place of work in the parish for the past 12 months;
- Or has lived within three miles (direct) of the parish within the past 12 months.

There are certain disqualifications for election, of which the main are:

- Holding a paid office under the Town Council;
- Bankruptcy;
- Having been sentenced to a term of imprisonment (whether suspended or not) of not less than three months without the option of a fine during the five years preceding the election; and

- Being disqualified under any enactment relating to corrupt or illegal practices.

Candidates found to be offering inducements of any kind will be disqualified.

Applications

Although there is no Statutory Requirement to do so candidates will be requested to:

- Submit information about themselves by way of completing a short application form (Appendix A)
- Confirm their eligibility for the position of Councillor within the statutory rules (Appendix B)

Following receipt of applications, the next suitable Council meeting will have an agenda item 'To receive written applications for the office of Town Councillor and to Co-opt a candidate to fill the existing vacancy'. Copies of the application will be circulated to all Councillors by the Clerk at least three clear days before the meeting of the full Council when the Co-option will be considered. All such documents will be treated as strictly confidential by the Clerk and Councillors.

Candidates will be invited to attend the full Council meeting at which co-option will be considered and will be sent an agenda of the meeting. Candidates will also be informed that they will be invited to speak about their application at the meeting. If a candidate has any special need or concern which will affect them speaking about their application, please let the Town Clerk know before the meeting so reasonable adjustments can be made.

At the Co-option Meeting

At the Co-option meeting, candidates will be given five minutes maximum to introduce themselves to members, give information on their background and experience and explain why they wish to become a member of TTC. The process will be carried out in the public session. Where TTC is discussing the merits of candidates and inevitably their personal details, this could be prejudicial and TTC may resolve to exclude members of the press and public. Any candidate has the right to ask for the reasons they were/were not accepted and they will be notified accordingly.

As soon as all candidates have finished giving their submissions the Council will decide whether to proceed with co-option by a show of hands. Should full Council resolve that there are suitable candidates and to proceed, Councillors will vote on the acceptability of each candidate utilising the Person Specification criteria as set out in Appendix C and any personal statements provided by the candidate(s), with each candidate being proposed and seconded by the Councillors in attendance and a vote by show of hands. The vote will be recorded.

In order for a candidate to be elected to TTC it will be necessary for them to obtain an absolute majority of votes cast (50% + 1 of the votes available at the meeting). If there are more than two candidates and there is no candidate with an overall majority in the first round of voting, the candidate with the least number of votes will drop out of the process. Further rounds of voting will then take place with the process repeated until a candidate has absolute majority. In the case of an equality of votes the Chairman of the meeting has a casting vote.

After the vote has been concluded the Chairman will declare the successful candidate duly elected and, after signing their Declaration of Acceptance of Office, he/she may take their seat immediately.

The Clerk will notify Electoral Services of the new appointment. The successful candidate(s) must complete their 'Registration of Interests' within 28 days of being elected. The form should be handed to the Clerk for forwarding to the Monitoring officer.

Any newly co-opted member will be provided with a welcome pack and invited to attend an induction/training session with the Town Clerk and/or other officers. This should take place as soon as possible.

If insufficient candidates come forward for co-option the process should continue, whereby the vacancies are again advertised.
